Abhilash "Abhi" Paspulati

MS&T Process Engineer | Biopharma | Tech Transfer | GMP |
Product Development | Manufacturing Strategy
Melbourne, Victoria, Australia

Summary

I'm a manufacturing and product development professional with 10+ years of experience across biopharma, vaccines, and nutraceuticals.

My expertise spans MS&T, GMP tech transfer, product scale-up, and digital manufacturing systems (PCS, MES, SAP, LIMS). I've led global operational readiness projects, CAPEX initiatives, and cross-functional teams to launch compliant and scalable manufacturing solutions.

I thrive at the intersection of technical execution and strategic delivery-enabling growth, reducing cost, and improving process reliability.
